

The 8th ENEN PhD Event 2014
in Burgos, Spain, 9-10 July at the International Youth Nuclear Congress, IYNC2014,

2nd Announcement as of 26 April 2014

1 Objective

In the framework of the 2014 International Youth Nuclear Congress, IYNC2014 in Burgos, Spain, 6-12 July 2014 (<http://www.iync.org/iync2014/>) the European Nuclear Education Network (ENEN) Association, in cooperation with the Joint Research Centre of the European Commission, is organizing the 8th ENEN PhD Event 2014.

The objectives of the ENEN PhD Event are:

- to provide a forum for PhD students to present their research work to their fellows and colleagues in a friendly but competitive spirit
- to promote the research work of PhD students in the nuclear fields, in particular experimental work
- to set up a bridge between PhD students and professionals in the nuclear field

2 Prize

Three selected laureates will be granted to attend to an international conference with support of the ENEN Association up to 1000 Euro (conference fee, travel, accommodation and meals - upon receipt of justification documents) and hereby encouraged to present the result of his/her research work.

3 Date and venue

Date: Wednesday 9 and Thursday 10 July 2014

All participants are requested to attend the ENEN PhD Event, the conference dinner and the awarded ceremony of the ENEN Prize on 10 at the closing dinner

Venue: The IYNC2014 conference will take place at two separate venues, starting at the FORUM Evolucion, and continuing at the Atapuerca Conference Center. However, on Wednesday (9 July) and Thursday (10 July) the IYNC2014 conference will only take place at the ABBA Hotel in Burgos.

4 General program

The Event will consist of up to 12 PhD presentations nominated by ENEN Members and selected by the ENEN PhD Event Jury. The Event will be divided into 3 or 4 sessions according to the subjects. The participants will make a presentation of their research work for 25 minutes followed by 5 minutes of questions and discussion.

All presentations will be judged by the Jury members on the submitted paper as well as on the quality of their presentation and on the clarity in the discussion while answering the questions and discussions. Three best presentations will be given the ENEN Prize. Please see the “Criteria and Procedure for the ENEN Prize” in Annex I.

A ceremony to provide the ENEN PhD Event Certificates will be held at the end of the Event. The Awarded Ceremony of the ENEN Prizes will be held during the conference dinner on 10th July 2014.

The members of the Jury will be (to be confirmed):

- Petre Ghitescu (University Politehnica Bucharest, Romania) CHAIR
- Francisco Elorza (Universidad Politecnica de Madrid, Spain)
- Andreas Pautz (Swiss Federal Institute of Technology Lausanne, Switzerland)
- Piero Ravetto (CIRTEN, Italy)
- Danny Lathouwers (TU Delft, The Netherlands)

The detailed program will be available after the selection of the participants is completed (See 6).

This Event is supported by the Joint Research Centre of the European Commission.
